

CORBAN ACCELERATED ONLINE

2012 - 2013 ACADEMIC CATALOG

Corban Accelerated Online (CAO) is an extension of the Adult Degree Programs (ADP) at Corban University, which is located on 142 beautiful acres near the I-5 corridor, overlooking Oregon's capital city.

The University is accredited by the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities. It is recognized by U.S. News & World Report as one of the West's Top Ten Best Regional Colleges.

As a Christian University, we are committed to providing a Christian education for life and service. It is our conviction that learning and the Christian faith are inseparable. We are committed to the Bible as our standard of faith and practice.

The mission of Corban Accelerated Online is to provide Adult Degree Programs students with a means for completing degree requirements outside their major.

CAO is a reading and writing intensive program offered to ensure that the CAO courses provide a comprehensive and timely set of general education and elective course credits allowing the Adult Degree Programs student to satisfy degree requirements.

CAO is a valuable tool for prospective or "pre-cohort" ADP students seeking to acquire the minimum number of credits required prior to entering the Adult Degree Programs. Students may earn from one to three credits per course.

CAO courses enable students to satisfy requirements in biblical studies and general education. Currently, CAO offers more than 50 online courses delivered in an online format using the Converge course management system.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us at 888.370.7590 or online at www.corban.edu.

Thank you.

CAO REGISTRATION

Early registration is always prudent when it comes to CAO courses. Many classes fill quickly as students are looking for credits to fulfill requirements for their degree in a timely manner. Register at www.corban.edu/cao. Registration for summer and fall 2012 opens on April 10.

Tuition for CAO is $335 per credit hour. Tuition must be paid in full at the time of registration. Corban accepts American Express, MasterCard and Discover. VISA is not accepted for tuition payment. You may also choose the option of E-Check when registering online.

Note: If you are a current Adult Degree Programs student and plan to use financial aid for CAO tuition, please contact your assessment counselor.

Note: If you are a Pre-Cohort Program student, you will be contacted regarding financial aid.

Course descriptions are available on the CAO website: www.corban.edu/cao. Simply click on class schedules and run your cursor over the class number or title.

Textbook and lab fees vary with each class and are not included in tuition. Please contact the Corban University Bookstore to purchase your textbooks and for our refund policy.

Course syllabi and other necessary course materials will be emailed to you following successful registration, approximately two weeks prior to class start date.

Prior to the start date of class, you will be registered in Converge (Corban's online course management system). You will receive information about the course, web mail, and access to grades/transcripts.

CLASS SIZE

Online CAO classes are limited to 15 students. Classes with fewer than five registered students are subject to cancellation. Should this occur you will be contacted in advance and your tuition will be refunded in full.

WITHDRAWALS

If you need to withdraw from a course you must do so PRIOR to the first Friday following class start date. Contact the Adult Degree Programs office by phone (888-370-7590 or 503-375-7590); or by email (cao@corban.edu) to officially request a course withdrawal. Students withdrawing AFTER the first Friday following the start date of class will forfeit a tuition refund and are subject to a failing grade.

REFUNDS

Tuition is refundable when a student requests a withdrawal prior to the first Friday following the start date of class. In cases where severe illness or a family emergency (occurring after a course has begun) prohibit one from completing a class, please contact the Adult Degree Programs office. If you have any questions contact us at 503-375-7590 or 888-375-7590 (outside of Oregon) or CAO@corban.edu.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

Corban University is committed to high academic standards and expects students to achieve these standards in a manner marked by integrity and honesty. Academic honesty is the hallmark of true personal integrity. Students' academic work is evaluated on the assumption that the work presented is their own. Faculty and students are expected to identify departures from academic honesty. For specific details regarding principles of academic honesty please see the online Corban Academic Catalog at www.corban.edu.

LIBERAL STUDIES COURSES

AT10200CA Introduction to Art (2 credits)

This course examines the role of art in today's society. The components of this course are exploration of art media, and the analytical and descriptive study of visual art, both present and past, with its social implications.

CO112CACA Fundamentals of Speech (2 credits)

An introduction to communication theory and practical aspects of communicating. Emphasizes support materials, powerful prose, vocal variety and the art of public speaking through personal feedback on four types of speeches (video taped). Biblical ethos is emphasized.

EN102CACA Introduction to Literature (2 credits)

This course will help students appreciate, understand, and analyze literature's three main genres: fiction, poetry, and drama. Students will learn many of literary terms that will help them fully appreciate and understand the literature they read. Some of these literary terms will include theme, character, plot, setting, point of view, and symbol.

EN122CACA Intro to College writing (2 credits)

Introduction to College Writing will develop the student's skills as a writer. The course is formatted for asynchronous delivery with instructor-facilitated online discussion forums. The student will examine Models for Writers, a book based on the rhetorical modes. The student will write four kinds of papers—narrative, division/classification, comparison/contrast and argument/opinion (with research and APA style).

HI25200CA History of the Pacific Northwest (2 credits)

History of the Pacific Northwest: Century of Settlement is a study of the political, religious, economic, and cultural life of the Pacific Northwest from the time of the First Nations (Indians) to the close of the frontier in the 1890s and the rise of the Progressive Era.

HI342CACA Jewish History and Culture (2 credits)

Jewish History and Culture gives a fascinating look at the spiritual grandmother sitting behind and alongside of our own Christian faith. The student studies Jewish biblical interpretation, key historic events, Talmudic wisdom, the place of holy days, and the power of Jewish religious symbols by reading the highly acclaimed book Jewish Literacy: The Most Important Things to Know About the Jewish Religion, Its People, and Its History. The author is the conservative Rabbi Joseph Telushkin, a teacher, widely respected inside and outside the Jewish world.

HI422CCCA How Christianity Transformed Civilization (2 credits)

Christianity Transforms Civilization is a study of the positive power of biblical truths and Christ's Gospel of Love as they dynamically interact with worldly cultures. All too often these days Christianity is bludgeoned as an aggressive meddlesome religion instead of a life-giving treasure that can help construct a healthy society. From the time of the Roman Caesars to the present day this course provides an overview of the transforming power of Christianity as it touches the different facets of culture.

HI44300CA American Civil War (2 credits)

The American Civil War still resonates within our national soul 150 years after the first shots were fired. This epic struggle worked to define who we are as Americans and what values we hold dear. The parameters of the course will center on the political and societal fracturing that pushed the Country toward war; the economic factors, including slavery, which separated and commercially defined the North versus South; the tough decisions and attending wisdom that formed Lincoln into an American legend; the struggle of men like Frederick Douglass to move the purpose of the war beyond saving the Union so as to include the liberation of four million people from slavery; as well as the strategies, tactics, and personalities at work in key battles up to July of 1863 with a special focus on Gettysburg.

MA102CACA Contemporary Math (2 credits)

This is an introductory course designed to bring the variety and usefulness of mathematics to the non-specialist. The goal is to help each student apply mathematics in problem solving and decision making for life, as well as to see God's power and creativity through mathematics.

PS202CACA General Psychology (2 credits)
