ALUMNI NEWS 1960s

RUHLMAN: John ('62) and Nancy (Mehner '62) have owned Prime West Advertising for more than 12 years. John began a half-time position as Pastor to Seniors at Emmanuel Baptist Church of Mount Vernon in April. He also serves as Missions Pastor. Nancy is a mentor for the church's MOPS program.

Recently, a new mother of preschoolers, Naomi, sat by Nancy at a meeting.

"Where did you grow up?" Nancy asked, beginning to get acquainted.

"Oh, pretty much all over, but mainly on the Amazon River in Peru," Naomi answered.

"Really!?" Nancy said. "I had a dear friend and college roommate whom we prayed for constantly there—however, we lost her after childbirth 25 years ago." Naomi's eyes got big and filled with tears. "That was my Mom! (Carol Harris '63)."

Nancy hugged Naomi with great emotion. "From now on," she said, "I'll be your Mom." Abby and Carolyn have been added to the Ruhlman brood of eight grandchildren to make 10!

1970s

LYLES: Karen (Kessler '70) is a longtime school teacher and for the last 14 years the Administrator of Faith Christian Learning Centers in Brentwood, CA. Karen continues to be on the Neighborhood Church staff in Children's Outreach Ministries. Golden State School of Theology granted her an Honorary Doctor of Divinity for outstanding ministry at graduation ceremonies September 25. Don ('70) was in the first WBBC graduating class in Salem. He is Dean of Christian Education at Golden State School of Theology. He completed his Th.D. in recent months. He co-teaches with Karen at Faith. Karen and Don met at WBBC and just celebrated their 34th anniversary at Disneyland with their children and grandchildren.

1980s

DOUGLAS: Matt ('85) and Barb (Knox '84) are home on furlough from Australia (ABWE). Their children, Amy and Luke, spent the summer with Grandma and Grandpa Douglas in Michigan and will take back many happy memories to Australia of new friends, fishing and extra birthday parties. Matt and Barb continue to raise necessary support and "outfit and passage" money before they can return to the field. They were able to attend much of the Missions Week here on campus Oct. 25-29.

1990s

BAKER: Lorie ('91) has returned to the U.S. after serving in war-torn Liberia with Northwest Medical Teams. She thanks God for the opportunity to meet so many needs, and for His protection in many dangerous situations.

SCHULMAN: Ben ('99) is the manager of a local bank in Anchorage now after spending over two years at a bank in North Pole. He said that was a great experience! He has been married about three and a half years, but no little Schulmans yet.

2000s

Jaden

CHAPMAN: Rosalea (Rankin '01) teaches 3rd graders at Crossroads Christian School in Portland, OR. This is her first year of full time teaching. Jaden is getting ready for Montessori school!

HESS: Maureen (Coffey '02) and her husband, Doug, live in Stuttgart, Germany where Doug is stationed with the U.S. Army and doing intelligence work. They enjoy traveling in western Europe in their free time.

MARTIN: Ronda ('02) writes that she plans to marry Mark Wagner in May, 2005. She currently lives in Portland, OR and attends Beaverton Four Square Church. Classmates may reach her at rondamartin@yahoo.com. ■
