50s

Bernard McChristian '56 and Kathy Nixon McChristian '56, were honored at a dinner for their 50th wedding anniversary at Crossroads Baptist Church of Bella Vista. The event was organized by their children and grandchildren. Their grandchildren served a dinner prepared by their executive chef, son, Gregory. Special guest, Forest Steenfoot '54 of San Jose, attended. He was their best man at their wedding.

When "Bernie" and Kathy were students, Bernie worked on a work scholarship in maintenance and Kathy was secretary to John Schimmel. Bernie pastored a few small churches when they were first married and for 30 years worked as a mechanic. Kathy was supervising clerk at the Trinity County Justice Court. Both have been retired for some time and make their home in Redding, California. They are active in their church, and Bernie is a deacon and operates the sound system. Kathy, who is seldom able to physically attend services, calls the widows and shut-ins by phone and makes and sends out lots of cards.

Class of '67 40 yr. Reunion at Homecoming: October 5-7, 2007
(see ad page 18)

Jim Nye '62 and wife Pat '61 reside in Normandy Park, Washington. They sold their business and traveled in a motor home during parts of 1998 and 1999. In 2000, they moved to the California side of Lake Havasu where Jim was office manager. In 1993, they returned to Washington when Jim was diagnosed with prostate cancer, which is now in remission. Pat was diagnosed with progressive kidney failure due to diabetes. She has ESRD (end stage renal disease) and has been on peritoneal dialysis since 2001 with kidney's now functioning at 1½%. They live with their son Randy, his wife and two daughters south of Seattle. They would love to hear from classmates through the Corban eDirectory. Pat especially would love to get mail at 21011 Marne View Drive SW, Normandy Park, WA 98166.

Jane McFarlane Mack '69(n) and husband Ed went to China summer 2006 with an ESL and basketball team. They participated with a language worker to build a relationship with the high school and university in one of the southern provinces. They live in Turlock, California.

70s

Class of '72 35 yr. and Class of '77 30 yr. Reunion at Homecoming: October 5-7, 2007 (see ad page 18)

Paul Anthes '71 and wife Ginny Cole Anthes '70(n) reside in Placerville, California and have four children and two grandchildren. Paul pastors Community Bible Church of Placerville.

(John) Coby Davies '72 is in his fourth year as a professor at a 30,000 student body university in NE Thailand. This post, after spending more than 20 years in banking and international business in Japan, Korea and the Philippines, is giving him a change to train Thai university undergrad and graduate students in international business and journalism. Coby has recently published a four-volume set of textbooks which are sold and distributed throughout nation's colleges and universities. He also is coordinating his efforts with a local Baptist missionary family who is active in campus evangelism, and short-term teams of Christian American college students who come to the university twice a year to build relationships with Thai students. A small home-church is in the process of forming, with several Thai professors and university students at its core.

Carol Miller Curtis '73 is a member of First Baptist Church, St. Francis, Minnesota and teaches school in their Christian School. On June 20, 2006, her husband Allen went home to be with the Lord. Dr. Curtis will be remembered as a faithful husband, father and church member. His presence at St. Francis Christian School will be missed where he volunteered several days a week. His local church ministry of Creation vs. Evolution seminars had expanded from Minnesota to Texas to the East Coast and Florida. Carol's e-mail is accurtis@goldengate.net.

Bruce Fields '74 and wife Betty live in Hayward, California where Bruce has been pastor of Bethel Baptist Church for the past three years. He served as pastor in Spokane, Washington for twelve years prior. He received his Master's of Divinity from Western Baptist Seminary in 1991. He and wife Betty celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary last fall. They have three adult children and two grandchildren. Bruce enjoys fishing and camping.

Terry Williams '76, associate director of Corban's residence life and former head women's basketball coach has been named new head women's basketball coach due to the resignation of coach Dave Bale who desires more time with family and his academic responsibilities. Five years ago, Williams handed the reigns over to Bale and now the roles are reversed. Williams returns to the bench where he guided then-Western Baptist to two straight National Christian College Athletic Association national titles in 1995 and 1996. Williams accumulated an overall record of 148-117 in eight seasons as the leader of the Warriors. During the 2000-01 season, Williams coached the Warriors to a school record 11-game winning streak from January through February.

Dr. James Rozman '77 of Santa Clara, California, is finishing his M.A.Ed., multiple subject teaching credential and teaching degree for the state of California. He completed 201 hours of observation and begins student teaching grade four for eight weeks and grade three for seven weeks. He has been substitute teaching in private and public schools, K-6, plus working in his church. He has overseen a living trust for the past fifteen years and a major house remodel for the trust. He is a military retiree and disabled American veteran.

Robin Jahnke '79 and wife Cindy Fagundes Jahnke '79 of Cheyenne, Wyoming celebrated 12 years in October at Sierra Trading Post as fulfillment and facilities director. Their three daughters are 23, 20, 17. The last one finishing high school at home and oldest graduated from TWU of Langley, B.C. in 2004. She manages a local Carpet One store and is a design consultant. They serve at Meadowbrook Baptist Church, teaching Sunday school, leading worship and sponsoring youth ministries.

Doug Rowland '79 and wife Debbie Williams Rowland '79 of Nampa, Idaho, traveled over 9,000 miles, speaking in churches, attending conferences, spending time with family and friends and preparing for a year of ministry on the campus of Boise State University with Campus Bible Fellowship. They have four children and one grandchild.

Randy Williams '79 is teaching pastor at First Baptist Church in Medford, Oregon. His oldest son and daughter live in Vacaville, California where Randy was middle school principal for five years. He and wife Colleen have had six adventurous adoptions, two births, a home full of music as Colleen teaches violin and cello, and the recent marriage of their oldest son.

Mark Glaser '81(n) and wife Sara Brink Glaser '83 reside in Scio. Sara works with her Creative Memories business with a custom framing venue, and Mark continues logging. They have four children: Will, Jessica, Caleb and daughter, Gretchen Acheson.

Kathy Smelcer '82 has returned to school into the ASL/English Interpreting program at Western Oregon University after working for the State of Oregon for 15 years. She plans to graduate in 2008. She lives in Salem and attends Salem Alliance Church.

Doug Higby '84 has worked for the federal government for the past 20 years and is in facility management for a research and development facility. He has been married for 14 years to Tonya, and they have a 10-year old son Seth and 8-year old daughter Jordan. They attend Cedar Grove Community Church. Their children are home-schooled and enjoy sports.

Doug and family visited Corban in July on their way home from Montana. He writes, "I really love what the college is doing. It is exciting to see Corban so successful yet not wavering on the mission and requirements. My son says he is attending college where dad went; he wants to be an astronaut so hopefully Corban will have a program in the future. My daughter says if she goes to college, she also wants to attend Corban. God bless Corban and the difference it is making in the lives of both the young and experienced."

Annette Stockton Prewitt '84 and husband David have lived in Loveland, Colorado the last eight years. She has been a stay-at-home mom for the past 17 years. Dave was in the Air Force for 10 years as a pilot and now flies for United Airlines based out of Denver. Annette works seasonally as a tax preparer. They have two children; Nathan is a junior in high school and Allison in the eighth grade.

Corrine Lutz Rothfus '84(n) resides in Des Moines, Iowa, with husband Ray. She has two daughters; Anne Edwards, 23 and Jennie Edwards, 21. Corrine works at their church, Fellowship Baptist, as the secretary for two pastors. They are involved in choir and nursery ministries.

Margery Glaser Straw '84 and Eric Straw, MAC '01 reside in Scio with their four children. Eric is associate professor of computer science at Corban and is working on his dissertation and teaches online classes for another college. Margie home schools their three younger children, works in Awana, teaches Sunday school and continues the farm/garden/food preservation work. Their daughter Jennifer is a Corban student.

Doug Rodgers '86 of Salem went to Turkey and Egypt last year. Two things stood out to him. First, pedestrians do not have the right-of-way. Second, lost souls are everywhere. He wrote that while this is true no matter where you are, it is much more visible when there are so many people who are openly Muslim. While walking and praying alone one night on a little island in the middle of the Nile River, he had an ache in his heart for those lost souls. He prays he will never lose that feeling.

David Ming Liu '89(n) lives in Hong Kong with his wife Sharrina and four daughters: Christina (11), Gloria (7), Rebecca (4.5) and Betty (2.5). Their youngest daughter is named after their "American Mom" Betty Balyo. David obtained his BBA from Western Oregon University in 1992 and MBA from Willamette University in 1994. Currently he is working on his Doctorate of Business Administration degree in City University of Hong Kong on a part-time basis.

He founded Longwell Technology International Ltd. in 2001 after working in a Hong Kong public listed company for six years as vice president. His company distributes computer DVD drives worldwide. Their family attends a Foursquare church.

Class of '97 10 yr. Reunion at Homecoming: October 5-7, 2007 (see ad page 18)

David Lacy '92 of Springfield, Oregon, has commenced his duties as a USA Field Representative for The Gideons International. David was born in Liberia, West Africa, to missionary parents. He holds a Master's in Theology from Covenant Theological Seminary in St. Louis, Missouri. He moved to Nashville from Oregon where he served as state Scripture coordinator and president of his local camp. He has a background in computers and most recently owned a restaurant in Springfield. He and wife Jessica have two sons, David Jr. and Harrison.

Willow Haase Myhre '93 and husband Ted Myhre '04, live in Wheaton, Illinois, and have established guardianship of four wonderful children from one family; Mark 10, Joseph 4, twins Christian and Christina 3. The adoption process will be final sometime in 2007. Ted commutes one block to Wheaton College where he works in the computing services department managing their data center. Willow is a special education student aide at Franklin Middle School, four blocks from their home. Given the increase in family size, they are looking for a larger dwelling and potentially new employment.

Meshell Allway Najjar '93 lives in Aurora, Colorado, with her husband Samer and five children, twins Victor and Carl are 15 months along with siblings Shiloh, Alex and Isaiah. She works part-time at their church, New Day, a two-year old church plant, as the children's director. Her husband works for Regal Piedmont Plastics as an inside sales representative, is finishing his bachelors degree in Biblical Studies and works part-time as part of the pastoral care team. Meshell is busy with their children's activities and school and enjoys gardening, crocheting, crafts projects and cooking.

Donna Scott '94 attends Dayspring Fellowship in Keizer, Oregon, where she is involved with the benevolence team. She enjoys traveling and exercising. Her son is 27 and earned his BS in business management. After several teaching positions, she has returned to Corban to earn her Master's in Education and excited to return for the many heartfelt and encouraging memories from when she attended last.

Brent Hudson '96 and wife Julie Cossey Hudson '96 live in Lynnwood, Washington where Brent is a youth pastor at Lynnwood Nazarene Church. Julie is a stay-at-home mom of three children; Kade, Simone and Colby. She helps with youth group activities.

Lyrice Hubbard '98 finished her second term in graduate school at OSU on the Cascades Campus. She is pursuing a Master's in Counseling through the graduate school of education. She is coordinator of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Central Oregon program. Her daughter Harmony enjoys kindergarten in Redmond.

Jonathan Penhollow '98 of Salem received a Crystal Apple Award at the 10th annual Salem/Keizer School District recognition event sponsored by the Salem Area Chamber of Commerce. The twelve Crystal Apple winners (of 53 nominees) were selected from peers, students and parents.

Jonathan, after graduating from Corban, obtained his teacher's license which included a Bilingual/ESOL Endorsement from OSU. He began studying Spanish in middle school and continued through and beyond college. He spent a year living in Santiago, Chile, studying missions and transcultural communication at the Instituto Iberoamericano. After spending a year back in the U.S., Jon returned to Chile in 1996 and in 1997 married his wife, Nathalie. Both lived and worked as teachers in Santiago for another year, before making Salem their permanent home in 1999. Jon worked as a bilingual instructional assistant at Swegle Elementary School and Waldo Middle School. He then worked for Woodburn Public School where he was a teacher in their English Transition Program. Jon currently teaches 3rd grade at West Salem Language Academy. He and his wife have two daughters.

Dan Rapoza '98 and wife Rachel-Anne live in Silverton, Oregon with their blended family of five children. He works for the State of Oregon Department of Human Resources. They have one son who is autistic and since that diagnosis Dan's career plans have shifted to following a desire to work in research on children with autism.

Heather Landon Timmons '98, husband Mark and five children live in Brownsville, Oregon. Heather is stay-at-home and a distributor of Body Shop at Home. Mark works at U.S. Tactical Supply in Albany. Newest family member, Marie, was born in November 2006.

Katrina McAlexander '99 returned to school and received a B.S. in Nursing at Linfield College in 2002. She worked in different departments within the Providence system in the birth centers and emergency. She currently works at Legacy Emmanuel's Children's Psych Unit with children with emotional and behavior challenges. She will complete her psychiatric mental health nurse practitioner's degree in June 2007 at OHSU.

Ben Wilson '99 and wife Dee Martin Wilson '99 of Stayton, Oregon were recently featured in an article in the Statesman Journal newspaper entitled "Group puts Bible's teaching to work." They use their Foothills Church prayer group to do what they can to help the community. The group says they try to put what they learn in the Bible to use around Stayton. Before Christmas, they put up fliers offering free childcare so that parents could go shopping. "We thought about something we would like and offered that," Ben said. "We are always looking for ways to help the community."

Danny Whittaker '99 and Betsy Alexander Whittaker '99 report that the International Community School has settled in its new location on Jubilee Road in Singapore. The building can accommodate 500 students and currently has an enrollment of 280. The largest population of students come from parents who have business careers. This presents great opportunity for the staff to minister to kids from a variety of religions. Betsy has been able to reach some of the immigrants through a program offered by the International Baptist Church. The church offers English as a Second Language (ESL) classes to wives and mothers who want to learn English. They have a son, Aaron.

OOs

Sarah Miller '01 is enrollment services assistant at Umpqua Community College in Roseburg, Oregon.

Sarajane Campbell '02 works as an autistic specialist in the Newberg school district and is obtaining a degree in nursing. She enjoys running, recently ran in the San Francisco half-marathon and is training for a marathon in New York. Her biggest fan and running partner is her Australian Shepherd puppy. She is involved with "the Bridge," a ministry that goes to Portland on Friday nights and serves the homeless population by washing their feet, feeding them, providing haircuts and other ways to meet their needs. The greatest need they are meeting is the need to meet Jesus Christ.

Joy Fong '02 is an R.N. working in a hospital in Santa Maria, California. She is involved with junior high students at the church she attends.

Jeremy Lee '02 works as a financial advisor with Ameriprise Financial in West Linn, Oregon. He married April Hanson of Puyallup, Washington, January 1, 2005 in Tacoma. She is a bridal consultant with David's Bridal.

Paige Kuske '03 is living in St. Louis where she is attending Washington University's graduate school of social work. She is in the second year and enjoying school and writes that social work has proven to be a challenging, engaging and inspiring field. She is working on her second practicum as an intern with a residential treatment facility and works in a dorm of eight girls ranging from ages 11-18. She leads group therapy and sees half of them individually as well. She is also a co-therapist in a few family cases. "Although I find my worldview challenged on a daily basis, it's been refreshing to be in a place where people are continually seeking explanations and revising their opinions. I don't often find myself agreeing with the presuppositions that guide the field, or with many of the answers that are offered for contemporary problems, but I do appreciate the sincerity and the genuine care I find among social workers."

Brandi Bennett Pollick '03 works at Morrow County Behavioral Health as a drug/alcohol counselor. Husband John is a service manager with HVAC. They attend Living Faith Center in Hermiston, Oregon. They enjoy camping and hunting with their two dogs.

With the Lord

Don "Donnie" Adams '00(n) of Monmouth died January 7, 2006 in Salem. He loved to play disc golf, play his guitar and spend time with his daughter. He is survived by his daughter and parents, Dave Adams '77 of Monmouth and mother Karleen Moyer Adams '77(n) of Monmouth.

Helen Crockrane Braly '58 of Strathmore, California, died on December 13, 2006. She was a member of Faith Baptist Church and sang and worked as the choir director and organist. She taught for 27 years for the Burton School District. She is survived by her husband Jim of 45 years; two sons, one sister and five grandchildren.

Carl R. Hill '68, Snohomish, Washington, died December 14, 2006 at home with his wife and his children at his side after a difficult battle with stomach cancer. He graduated with honors from WBBC in 1968 and continued working for the college until 1976. He served as executive estate planner at CRISTA ministries for many years and as association Pastor for Community Christian Fellowship in Edmonds, Wash. He is survived by wife Janice Chaney Hill '62, eight children and four grandchildren.

Richard Teegarden '82(n), of Crescent City, California, died on May 28, 2005.

Rosalee Bennett Gluck, passed away December 20, 2006. She was a friend to many Corban/WBBC alumni from the 1960s who spent many hours at the family home in Lafayette, California, and in Oregon. She played den mother for students in the summertime on campus. Husband, Lawrence Bennett was development director in the mid 60s.

She is survived by her only child, Max L. Bennett '76 of Salem; stepsons Glenn Bennett, Carl and Leonard Gluck '71 of California; stepdaughters Linda Claassen '67(n) of Oregon and Lois Ann Hart of California; brothers Carter and Clifford Crites; sister Bernice Sanson, all of Missouri.

Her life had been characterized by commitment to the cause of Christ from the moment she came to know the Lord as her personal Savior in mid-life. She tirelessly served the Lord over the years—establishing and leading Child Evangelism Clubs; youth group sponsorships and mentoring programs; and offering hospitality to WBBC students. After Lawrence went home to be with the Lord in 1964, she shared her powerful personal testimony with dozens of women's ministries throughout California, Oregon, Washington and Idaho. She also served as loving wife, Mom and doting Grandma, and later ministered as a pastor's wife with her loving husband, Robert Gluck, establishing and nurturing fledgling churches. She later worked as Campground Chaplain's wife at 1000 Trails Campground in Pacific City, Oregon.

Joan Davenport Howden '69 went to be with her Lord and Saviour on February 21, 2007 after a courageous battle with ovarian cancer.

Joan was a lifelong Olympia, WA resident. She graduated from Tumwater High School in 1964 and received a degree in Music from Western Baptist Bible College. Joan also earned a degree in Education. She was a music teacher at East Olympia Elementary, a secretary for the Tumwater First Baptist Church, and, recently, a secretary for the Educational Services District #113. Joan had a passion for music. She will be remembered for her talented piano playing and beautiful voice. Joan used her musical abilities to serve the Lord. Joan played the piano at Tumwater First Baptist Church for many years. She also directed the choir and special music programs and sang during church services. In addition, Joan taught piano to students. The family would like any memorial donations to be made to the Westwood Baptist Church in Olympia.

Policy

With the Lord: submissions must be accompanied by a copy of a newspaper obituary or funeral home notice. We reserve the right to edit for space and clarity.

Graduation Year: Did you attend college for a year or two but for some reason didn't graduate? No matter how long you attended, you are still considered an alumnus or alumna of the Corban/Western Baptist College family. The alumni office records it as in this example: if you entered in fall 1981, attended three years and left in 1984 but didn't graduate, you are associated with the class of 1985 because that's the 4-year graduation date of your fellow classmates. If you don't want to be listed with your 4-year class, please let the Alumni Office know. Having you listed in the correct class year is important, because we want you to receive your class reunion invitations!

Non grad (n): signifies alumni who didn't graduate.
