Admissions Essays

Please answer the following questions with short essays (approximately 500 words each) on a separate sheet of paper.

1. Explain how you came to know Jesus as your Savior, provide the scriptural basis for your salvation and describe what in your life indicates that you are walking with the Lord.
2. What do you believe are the characteristics necessary for a Christian to be an effective professional counselor?
3. How will Corban's Master of Arts in Counseling help you accomplish your professional and personal goals?

Christian Character

Lifestyle Commitment:

As a Christian university, Corban is committed to providing a Christian education for life and service. It is our conviction that learning and the Christian faith are inseparable. We are committed to the Bible as our standard of faith and practice. We also believe it is in the best interest of the university that students adhere to our lifestyle policies.

Corban University students are responsible for upholding behavioral standards which exist for the betterment of the community. Language is to be appropriate for a Christian academic environment. Students will show proper respect for their bodies, which are the temple of the Holy Spirit, by abstaining from practices harmful to the body and from immorality. University standards also include responsibility for being faithful in church attendance and classes. We believe these standards have been designed to promote an academic environment conducive to growth.

Criminal History Check:

Have you been accused or judged guilty of a criminal offense? No Yes

If yes, please explain. Note that a yes answer does not immediately deny acceptance into the program. However, it is the policy of Corban University that prospective applicants with a criminal record wait to apply for a minimum of one year from the end of their parole and/or probation (see the Master of Arts in Counseling Academic Bulletin for further explanation).

I indicate by my signature that the information I have provided in this application is complete and accurate, and that I grant permission for Corban University to verify this information independently where appropriate. I agree to abide by the "Lifestyle Commitment" as noted above.
