

Corban University
Adjunct Faculty Announcement

Adjunct Instructor – Corban Language Institute Pathway to English

Application Process on Following Page

MISSION: To educate Christians who will make a difference in the world for Jesus Christ.

PATHWAY PROGRAM MISSION & VISION: Provide international Christian students, with a developing English language ability, the instruction, environment and experiences necessary to promote meaningful language acquisition to further their personal, professional, and vocational goals.

The Pathway to English program is the IELP (Intensive English Language Program) at Corban University for students who intend to enter undergraduate classes. We provide levels of intensive English language training at every skill level in academic reading, writing, listening & speaking, grammar & conventions, intro to Christian faith and fitness.

Corban Language Institute Instructors are responsible for leveraging their expertise to deliver education services to students through: preparing course plans and materials based on learning objectives, delivering courses, monitoring progress/attendance, recording grades, and encouraging independent student growth.

QUALIFICATIONS AND REQUIREMENTS:

- Master's in TESOL or Applied Linguistics with TESOL courses preferred. Advanced degrees in related fields (Education, Bible, etc.) will be considered for specific courses.
- Have two years of experience teaching international or non-native English speaking students, preferably at the post-secondary level.
- Manages a high understanding and use of English language, including differences between general, religious, and academic English.
- Develops original materials and assessment based on objectives to supplement curriculum.
- Monitors and evaluates students to regularly track student learning and progress.
- Familiarity with applicable instructional technologies, including document cameras, computer-assisted instruction, online learning management systems, and photocopiers.
- Delivers instruction using strategies designed for diverse learning styles.
- Exhibits a desire to learn and interact cross-culturally.
- Communicates effectively with students, staff, and instructors.
- Eagerly engages with students in conversation, extra assistance and relationship development. This can include office hours and participating in cultural events.
- Evangelical Christian commitment and lifestyle consistent with the university's mission as described in our Statement of Faith
- Candidates should value an environment that reflects the diversity of God's kingdom, engages in global concerns and connects culturally.

Corban University is a private comprehensive university of liberal arts, ministry, and professional studies with a mission to educate Christians who will make a difference in the world for Jesus Christ. All employees are expected to model servant leadership in all aspects of their work. Corban values and recruits for a workforce that is diverse in gender, age, ethnicity, race, and/or ability, and seeks employees who will interact with the Corban community in a way that reflects a commitment to cultural proficiency. Where permitted by law and consistent with the school's history, mission, and core values, Corban exercises religious preference throughout the University. Employees must have a personal relationship with Jesus Christ, agree with the University Statement of Faith, evidence a mature Christian faith, and be an active member of a Bible-believing, Gospel-preaching local church.

To Apply

Interested Candidates please submit the following:

- A cover letter of expressed interest
- Resume
- Brief testimony of your Christian faith
- Completed Corban Faculty application found on our website: www.corban.edu/employment
- Two references
- Transcript

Send or email to:
Corban University
Kara Sappington
Center for Global Engagement
5000 Deer Park Drive SE
Salem, OR 97317
global@corban.edu